

Kosovo American Education Fund Graduate Fellowship Program

about the KAEF graduate fellowship

KAEF serves as a catalyst for the sustainable development of a democratic Kosovo by investing in motivated, talented individuals with leadership potential, and providing them with master's degrees at prestigious universities throughout the U.S. in fields including Business Administration; Economics; Environmental Management and Policy; International Affairs; Law and Public Administration, etc. Returning to Kosovo, KAEF graduates assume positions of leadership in public and private organizations, with the expectation that, over time, they will become leaders in Kosovar society - both as individuals, and as members of an ever-growing professional network.

program support

- 100 % tuition and fees support
- Textbook allowance
- Round-trip travel
- Monthly stipend
- Medical insurance
- Professional development fund
- Alumni support

start today!

Apply online at: www.kaef-online.org

who can apply?

The KAEF Program does not discriminate on the basis of ethnic origin, age, race, color, gender, religion or disability. Persons with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply. Competition for the KAEF Program is merit-based and open to anyone who meets the following requirements:

- In possession of a passport from Kosovo by October of 2010
- An habitual resident in Kosovo and residing in Kosovo at the time of application and during the selection process
- Able to convincingly demonstrate exiting and durable ties to Kosovo and a firm commitment to return to Kosovo for at least two years after the completion of the program
- The recipient of an undergraduate degree by the time of study in the U.S. (undergraduate degree must be in law in order to apply in the field of law).
- Proficient in spoken and written English at the time of application.
- Able to demonstrate professional aptitude and leadership potential in the selected field of specialization.
- Able to begin the program of study in the United States in the summer of 2011.
- Able to receive and maintain a U.S. J-1 exchange visitor visa.

American Councils for International Education
Fehmi Agani Street, No 46/3
10000 Pristina, Kosovo
+381 38 226 255

application deadline
September 6, 2010